Ellendale merchants prepare for the monthly Market Day crowds.

Customers from a 30-mile radius flock to the city for special bargains available.

The city park is the scene of many picnics during good weather. Families from country and town enjoy pleasant surroundings.

Special attractions are brought in for Market Day. Here is the Kulm band, performing in the park.

Golf is a major diversion of Ellendale residents. One of the best golfers is 80-year-old B.R. Crabtree, bank president.

One of the finest swimming pools in the state attracts huge crowds during hot summer months.

Whist parties and dances are held Market Day evenings for the entertainment of patrons. Drawing for prizes is one of the most popular events.

More stock passes through the Ellendale sales ring than through any other ring in this part of the country.

FARM MACHINERY CLASS

For the benefit of farm boys and others who have free time during the winter months, the N-I maintains a farm machinery course which runs concurrently with the winter quarter. This year's group studied auto and tractor mechanics, arc and acetylene welding, carpentry, and related subjects. An evening course was also held for those who were unable to attend daytime classes.

LEADERSHIP

En Aye Leadership Awards went to five students in 1948. Awards were based on leadership qualities as evidenced through initiative, personality, character, scholarship, and service to the N-I.

How the World Student Service Fund is used among students in foreign countries was explained by Demetrius Cordas, visitor from Greece, pictured here with a group from the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

All student activities and expenditures from the student activities' fund are supervised by the Student Council, organized in 1936 by President McMillan to give the student body as large a voice in campus affairs as possible. Students select their own representatives, one from each department. The representatives are guided by a constitution adopted by the student body in 1936 and revised in 1941.

Under the supervision of R. T. Schonberger, head of the college English department, The En Aye appears twice a month during the school year. It is a four-page paper, which, because it carries no advertising, gives better news coverage than any other newspaper of similar size in the country. On the staff this year are Mary Lee Randall, Mary Lou Kronberg, Alva Johnson, Donald Enger, Marian Ulmer and Kathryn Kirmis, feature writers; Lester Karas, Stephen Johnson, Fred Bell, Orpha Opdahl, Roland Brauer, Ralph Lenhart, Patrick Breitling, and Irma Bauer, special writers. Reporters were selected by the various clubs and departments on the campus.

To unite all students in the education department into one body for social and professional purposes is the aim of the Normalian Junta, a club which was organized in 1937. Major activities include programs presented by the students and talks by guest speakers, both of which give members a more intimate knowledge of the problems of life, both in school and out.

The National Student Young Men's Christian Association has four main objectives: Christian faith and heritage, social responsibility, personal and campus affairs, and world relatedness. These objectives are the same for the N-I Y. M. C. A. More than a Christian association, The Y. M. C. A. is a place where young men can have good, clean fun, where they can exchange ideas, and where they can help students in other lands through the World Student Service Fund.

Standing: Phyllis Jerke, Elizabeth Iverson, Marilyn Palensky, Emma Hoffmann, Lois Bentson, Violet Karlson, Louise Richter, TeOlah Foley. Seated: Mrs. Nellie Lees, Annie Brosz, Mary Lou Kronberg, Audrey Schnabel, Ann Strand, Madalyn Palensky, Irma Bauer.

The Young Women's Christian Association exists on the campus for the purpose of helping the women students to grow religiously and of providing campus friendships. The N-I chapter was organized in 1906. Meetings are held twice a month, many of them jointly with the Y. M. C. A. Films, panel discussions, and outside speakers account for most of the programs.

Standing: Marian Brandenburger, Ilene Bobbe, Edith Herman, Alva Johnson, Mabel Alin, Marie Murphy. Seated: Audrey Schnabel, Mary Lou Kronberg, Annie Brosz, Ann Strand, Emma Hoffmann, Joyce Bjur.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The N-I chapter of the American Home Economics Association is organized and directed within the college home economics department to provide members with an opportunity for personal development, for service to school and community and for active participation in programs for improving home and family living.

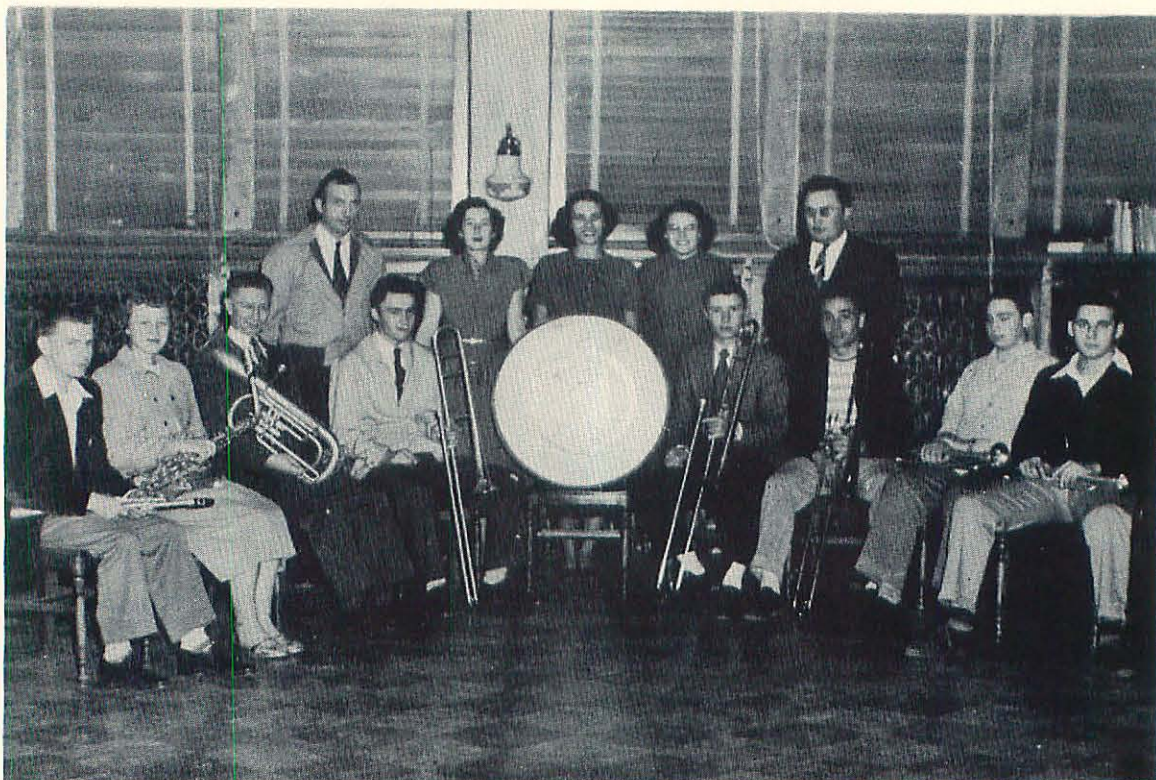

Back row: Kenneth Muske, Paul Speidel, Raymon Reid, Donald Phillips, Dean Bartle, David Bollinger, Eldon Herman, William Bauder, Marvin Rathe. ## INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

Officers

Marvin Rathe .....	President
Orson Bauder .....	Vice President
Kenneth Muske .....	Secretary
Stephen Johnson .....	Treasurer
E. L. Kurth, S. V. Anderson .....	Advisers

The purpose of the Industrial Arts Club is to foster the aims and objectives of industrial education, to promote leadership and scholarship, and to provide a wholesome social life for members. A major activity of the club is a "hobby night" held twice a week during the winter, to which all students and townspeople are invited.

Standing: Herbert Wolff, Ardys Johnson, Joan Meyer, Marian Ulmer, W. B. Myhrum. Seated: Kenneth Muske, Marilyn Palensky, Leo Hardy, Milton Ulmer, Keith Pierce, Donald Enger, Gerald Nelson, Kenneth Eberhard.

BAND

Under the guiding genius of E. W. Ackert, for forty years the director of the band he organized in 1908, the N-I band has provided music at sports contests, has appeared in concerts at the college and in nearby towns, and has provided countless students with an opportunity to learn to organize, administer, and direct high school bands.

This year, with "Daddy" Ackert on the retirement list, W. B. Myhrum has taken over the duties of director and has molded an organization worthy of the excellent standards of past achievements.

CHORUS

Choral work at the N-I this year featured an a cappella choir instead of the traditional men's and women's glee club, with Lee Hardy as director. The term "a cappella" is derived from musical use in the Middle Ages. Since singing in the chapels was characteristically unaccompanied, it has become customary to designate as "a cappella," or "in the chapel style," any part music in which voices alone are used. The unaccompanied type of singing requires finer attention to detail and is the most valuable of all means of developing vocal musicianship.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Officers

Ilene Bobbe .....	President
Mary Jane Trei .....	Vice President
Kathryn Kirmis .....	Secretary
Marian Brandenburger .....	Treasurer
Mrs. S. D. Slemmons .....	, Adviser

The Women's Athletic Association is organized for those girls who are interested in athletics and for those who wish to minor in physical education. Members compete in eleven sports during the school year, earning points which eventually win ND letters or athletic sweaters. Twelve members earned enough points to qualify for letters last year.

Standing: William Bauder, Wilbert Thurn, Tony Davis, Charles Trei, Warren Merrick, Conrad Juelke, Gerhardt Schaible.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

Lettermen on the N-I campus are traditionally all-around athletes; seldom does the college produce a man proficient in only one type of athletic competition. Of the 30 lettermen in college this year, only a half-dozen made letters in only one sport, and of that handful most took part in other sports without earning monograms.

Reorganized in the fall of 1937, the N-I Lettermen's Club takes an active part in promoting various forms of athletics. Sweater awards are made to members of the club who earn three letters in any one major sport, and recognition pins are given to all seniors who have earned membership in the club through their athletic proficiency.

ALPHIAN

Officers

Mary Lee Randall .....	President
Mary Lou Kronberg .....	Vice President
Mary Glant .....	Secretary
Mrs. R. N. Purcell .....	Adviser

The oldest organization on the campus, the Alpha Phi Society was founded in 1906 to give its members forensic training. During the years since then, the club has expanded until today its main purpose is social, with dramatics and literary training also included in its activities.

N-I PLAYERS

Officers

Alva Johnson .....	President
Shirley Pett .....	Vice President
Fred Bell .....	Secretary
Mary Lee Randall .....	Treasurer
Frances McShane .....	Reporter
Mrs. Clara T. Ingvalson .....	Adviser

The N-I Players is an organization for the development of drama as a vehicle of education and entertainment for the members and others, as well as a source of experience and pleasure for those participating actively in the work. The object of the club is to promote better dramatics as a service to the N-I and to afford an opportunity for self-expression among the members.

D.P.O.

Cast 43 of Delta Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity, was installed at the N-I in May, 1948, with five charter members initiated by Mrs. Clara T. Ingvalson, official representative of the Grand Cast of the organization. D. P. O. was brought to the campus by the N-I Players, who felt the need of a national organization to recognize and reward various phases of student participation in play production.

Football Squad

With thirteen lettermen returning from the strong 1947 team, prospects for a title contender at the college seemed bright last fall. But injury to key players dashed all hopes, and the Dusties wound up with three victories in six conference games.

The Dusties drove to a 20 to 0 victory over the Jamestown College Jimmies in the season's opener, then put on a last-half rally to romp over a surprisingly tough Dickinson eleven, 32 to 6. Visions of a conference championship were vivid as the NI invaded Minot for a shot at the Beavers, but twice the eventual champs came from behind to nip the Dusties in a thriller, 21 to 19. Connie Juelke was lost to the squad through a broken hand in the last half, and that meant the game and the title as far as the Dusties were concerned.

The Dusties grabbed the lead in the first quarter on a blocked punt, but the Beavers came back with two touchdowns to lead 14 to 6 at the end of the third period. Again the Dusties rallied to count twice on the brilliant passing of Don Berg and the equally sensational ball-toting of Connie Juelke. With but two minutes to play, the Dusties appeared to have the game tucked away at 19 to 14, but a gamble on fourth down failed and a last-ditch attack netted the Beavers a final tally as the game ended.

Without Connie, the N-I was just another team. At Mayville the Dusties took a 28 to 0 victory without trouble, but the last two games found them outmanned by Wahpeton and the Valley City Vikings. The Wildcats dumped the Dusties by a 19 to 0 count and the Vikings spoiled the N-I Homecoming by administering a 34 to 7 trouncing to the Dusties. "Beaver" Juelke and Duane Mattheis were out of the final two games for long periods of time with head and shoulder injuries that occurred at crucial moments, further hurting the N-I chances for victory.

The Dusties got their share of recognition for outstanding play when the conference coaches picked their all-star squad. On the twenty-man team were four Dusties: Don Berg at quarterback, Connie Juelke at left half, LeRoy Juelke at tackle, and Wayne Merrick at end. Captain Chuck Trei, who made the squad as a freshman end in 1947, was just nosed out in the balloting, as was the N-I center, "Dewey" Mattheis. Berg received another high honor in December, when he received honorable mention on Tommy Harmon's Little All-America eleven.

Twenty-six members of the squad won letters for their ability this year. They were Wayne Merrick, Chuck Trei, Gary Schaible, and the two Muckenhirns at ends; George Haussler, LeRoy Juelke, Les Ecklund, and Ray Griess at tackles; Don Wagner, Darwin Whelan, Wilbert Thurn, Ervin Dockter, Vernon Courtney, and Bill Bauder at the guards; Duane Mattheis and Charles Anderson at center; Don Berg and Bart Slemmons at quarterback; Connie Juelke, Jim Mooney, Bob McEachern, Larry Schuschke, and Bill Brown at halves, and Tony Davis and Ken Shockman at fullback.

Basketball Team

Basketball is one of those sports in which a team never knows what is going to happen. Following this theory, the Dusties ran true to form. At times they looked very good, and at other times they looked bad. They started out well with a close victory over the University of Manitoba, then dropped a game to Huron College and lost two of three games at the state inter-collegiate tournament at Minot during the Christmas holidays. In conference play, they lost three in a row at the start, then came back to win four of their next eight games. Their record of four victories and seven defeats gave them fifth place in the nine-team conference. Jerry Muckenhirn was the Dusties' leading scorer with 195 points in sixteen games. He averaged just over  $14\frac{1}{2}$  points for the eleven conference games, giving him fifth place among loop scorers. Eddie Muckenhirn was second among N-I scorers with 136 points, followed by Wayne Merrick with 131 and Connie Juelke with 109.

At the end of the season Coach Slemmons awarded letters to ten members of the squad. They were Jerry and Eddie Muckenhirn, Don Berg, Connie Juelke, Wayne and Warren Merrick, Bart Slemmons, Duane Mattheis, Delbert Altmann and Harlan Scherer. No five men were considered regulars, with shifts occurring as the situation demanded. Juelke was chosen as the Dusties' representative on the all-star team for a game with the Bismarck Phantoms, an honor won in 1948 by Don Berg when Senn Slemmons was named all-star coach.

Basketball B Team

Five victories in ten games was the record of the Dustie "B" team during the 1949 season. Highlights of the year were wins over the Valley City Reserves and the Ellendale Independents. The top scorer for the Bees was Ken Eberhard, who tossed in 109 points in nine games. Larry Schuschke had 54 in eight games, and Bill Brown made 53 in six. A total of 16 men played for the Bees during the year, but the eight who were on hand for most of the tilts were Ken Eberhard, Keith Pierce, Larry Schuschke, Ron Edgeton, Les Ecklund, Jim Mooney, Bill Brown, and Gary Schaible.

Track was the least successful sport for the Dusties last year, although five men placed in enough meets to earn their letters. Individual honors went to Wilfred Bauer, who amassed 48 points in the dashes, low hurdles, and broad jump, and won high point honors in the conference meet at Valley City. The N-I entered five meets, placing third in the annual Dakota Pentangular and fifth in the conference event. Letter winners were Don Berg, Chuck Trei, Don Porter, and Jerry Hill, besides Bauer.

BOXING

Boxing held the interest of students this year through the superior ability of the three N-I fighters. Much of the credit should go to Jim Rognlien, student coach for four years, whose record was the best in the Northwest.

Don Berg, LeRoy Juelke, and Les Karas all won district crowns and went to sectional Golden Gloves tournaments. Berg, winning at Wahpeton on three knock-outs, disposed of four more the same way before losing in the finals at Minneapolis. But he had the whole city talking as he was awarded the "fightingest fighter" trophy. Juelke and Karas won district titles at Aberdeen and competed in the sectional at Sioux City, both bowing out in the quarter-finals.
